Who are we?

The NBCW, supported by the Bishops' Conference of England & Wales, is a member-based organisation that also serves as an umbrella body for women's groups.

We connect women in and out of the pews with one another- building Communion.

We offer formation designed and focused around the needs of women- enabling Participation.

We work with key Catholic organisations to create a vibrant, united national network of women of faith - living out their Mission in building the Kingdom of God.

Our Vision

We amplify the voices and experiences of Catholic women.

We hold space for the diverse views of women ensuring their concerns are heard.

We support women on their journey to holiness through accompaniment and solidarity.

We promote connection and participation with the Church's mission.

We work with our ecumenical sisters to keep Christ at the centre.
